Sub: The Hon'ble Supreme Court Grants Extension to its Interim Stay (March 17, 2011) against AICTE's Notification dated December 28, 2010 on the Autonomy of PGDM Institutions for Admissions for the year 2016-17

Sir/Madam,

Greetings from EPSI!

1. Kindly refer to our earlier Circular(s), regarding the hearing of Writ Petition (C) No.92 of 2011. The matter came up for hearing today, i.e. the 04th December, 2015, before the bench comprising of Hon'ble Mr. Justice M.Y. Eqbal and Hon'ble Mr. Justice C Nagappan.
2. On behalf of PGDM Institutions Mr. K.K. Venugopal, Sr. Advocate, Mr. Huzefa A Ahmadi, Sr Advocate, Mr. Gopal Sankara Narayan, Advocate and Mr. Naresh Kaushik, Advocate appeared in the Court. The matter was heard. The HON'BLE COURT HAS EXTENDED THE STAY DATED MARCH 17, 2011 FOR THE ACADEMIC SESSION YEAR 2016-17 ALSO. The PGDM Institutions for the academic session 2016-17 will take admissions through six national tests viz., CAT, XAT, MAT, ATMA, GMAT and CMAT. We are awaiting for the Order from the Hon'ble Supreme Court, the same will be sent upon received.
3. This is a good relief for the PGDM Institutions. You will appreciate that this has been achieved due to the efforts of EPSI and your support. However, your continued support and co-operation by sending the legal contribution and taking membership of EPSI is necessary as the Writ Petition has not yet been finally disposed off.
4. EPSI will continue to keep you updated further on regular developments.

For any queries or assistance please contact Mr. Palanivel, Executive Secretary, EPSI (98685 26065/9818229745) or email at exesecretary@epsfi.org, mail@epsfi.org. He will keep in touch with you for soliciting your valuable support to endeavors of EPSI.

With Regards,

Yours sincerely,

(Dr H Chaturvedi)
